Nelson, Douglas and Faller Highlight Foundation's Annual Fundraising Weekend

Success can be measured in many ways – monetary, completed event, renewing of friendships. The Sports Legends Reunion and High Hopes Tournament was a success in all three categories. Although not as financially successful as last year's event, the weekend topped the $25,000.00 mark for a fourth year. More businesses and individual contributors were involved, providing new and interesting silent and live auction items and golf raffle opportunities.

Fundraising weekend - High Hopes Honorary Chair Ollie & Ann Nelson, Sherrie & Daryl Parker, Sports Legends Reunion Honored Guest Bill & Sally Douglas.

Returning to the Howard Johnson Gateway Plaza after three years at the Clarion Hotel and Conference Center (under new management and a new name – Yakima Valley Hotel and Conference Center), the Sports Legends Reunion was attended by 129 supporters. Alex Pualani provided music during the social hour while attendees mingled, excited to see familiar faces as well as people who were first-time attendees.

Sports Legends Reunion Honored Guest Bill Douglas, stellar quarterback for Wapato High School and the University of Washington, had a number of stories to tell about Bill Faller and others. Douglas stayed in the Valley, owning several businesses and serving on many boards of directors. He continues an active lifestyle, fishing and playing basketball. Bill was supported by wife Sally and children John, Heather, Peter, Aubrey and Katie.

High Hopes Honorary Chairman Ollie Nelson, longtime Yakima YMCA executive director, was gracious in his comments, as one would expect. It was a pleasure to meet his wife, Ann, and their family – Eric, Jean, Katie and Jason. Thank you to Tony Sagare for introducing Ollie to the audience. Ollie and Ann met at college and have been traveling through life on a tandem bicycle.

Daryl Parker surprised the audience with an announcement that the Yakima Valley Community College Board of Directors was taking under advisement the suggestion that Parker Field be renamed the Parker-Faller Field in honor of Daryl's father Shirley Parker and Bill Faller, legendary YVCC coach.

Awards presented were: Contributor of the Year – Bill Douglas; Parker Partner of the Year – Trudy Bray; Joe Donahue Memorial Scholarship Recipient – Diana Gil-Vargas; Faller/Brayton Endowment Coaches Award – Bryton Redal; and the Swede Lindquist Official of the Year - Ron Williams. The Swede Lindquist Award was presented to the Yakima Valley Football Officials Association. The $1,000.00 goes to the association for the retention and training of new officials and is sponsored by Swede's daughter and son-in-law Mary and Tom Herche.

Letter from the President

We just successfully completed our main fundraising project for the year – the 2014 Sports Legends Reunion and the High Hopes Golf Tournament. I want to thank all the Parker Partners for their support. These events allow PY&SF to provide support to many community youth activities throughout the Yakima Valley.

These events would not have been possible without the dedicated chairperson of each event. Virginia Hays is the chair of the Sports Legends Reunion. Virginia handles many tasks for PY&SF, but her dedication to the success of the reunion is exceptional. We all owe Virginia a personal thank you. Thank you, Virginia; you are very special to the Parker Youth & Sports Foundation.

On Saturday, the High Hopes Golf Tournament was successful – a good time for all attending. The chair for this event was Eric Carlson. Committee members included Spud Edmondson, Sam Karr, Virginia Hays and me. They did a great job of organizing the tournament. The support staff was also instrumental in making this a successful event. Trudy Bray, Becky Turner, Susan Braun, Carol Finney, Loxi Engebretson, Darlene Olmstead, Barb Amstutz, Gary Kingsboro and many other volunteers helped getting the tournament up and running. Thanks to all of you who contributed to that weekend in making another successful event for P&SF.

PY&SF is busy putting together our budget for the 2014-2015 year. Chuck Hinckley, PY&SF treasurer, is doing a good job for us. He, along with Virginia Hays, keeps track of our income and expenses. As of June 30, 2014, two of the foundation's assets stand at $270,126.00 in the Faller/Brayton Endowment and $55,500.75 in the PY&SF Director's Fund.

Sam Karr is chair of the Grants and Allocation Committee. He was able to facilitate support to many 501(c)3 organizations and their involved youths. Thank you, Sam for your commitment to PY&SF.

At the annual Yakima Valley Sports Award Luncheon, Parker Youth & Sports Foundation Scholastic Awards were presented for the second year. This is becoming an annual award for our organization. We gave awards of $300.00 each to five school classifications: 1B/2B, 1A, 2A, 3A and 4A.

The Parker Youth & Sports Foundation has had a good year, thanks to the help of its many partners. Please accept my personal thank you for all your efforts to make PY&SF a success. I look forward to an even better year for us in the 2014-2015 year.

He was converted from a catcher to a fireball pitcher by legendary John Zaepfel.

Walt played for YJC, where he holds the record for pitching four complete doubleheaders, winning all eight games for coach Bim Hoff. He was invited to try out for the NY Yankees. Walt was a veteran of the Korean police action, and we thank him for that service. Walt and wife Evva raised two sons while operating an orchard. He supported the family and farm by working the night shift at Boise Cascade.

PY&SF 2nd Annual Scholastic Award Five Valley High Schools Honored

For the second time, this past June at the Yakima Valley Sports Awards ceremony, the PY&SF presented five valley high schools with scholastic awards in the amount of $300.00. Mike Carey of the Yakima Valley Sports Commission collected academic and team sports performance data from the Washington Interscholastic Athletic Association for the foundation to create the scholastic award. The WIAA awards points to all schools participating in its sanctioned activities for team performance as well as scholastic achievement. Sportsmanship is also a factor in the schools' earning points.

PY&SF created five classifications for the scholastic award, deciding to recognize schools in the 1B/2B, 1A, 2A, 3A and 4A categories. High schools receiving the second year of the award are Sunnyside, Ellensburg, Eisenhower, Selah and Zillah.

Foundation to Honor the Past in 2015

Editor's note: The PY&SF Board of Directors will be honoring the 1964-65 Davis and Eisenhower teams at the 2015 Sports Legends Reunion. The Parker Field: '65 Boomer "High Hopes" article is the first story leading up to the June 12th event. Look for an article in the next issue featuring key athletes.

Parker Field: '65 Boomers "High Hopes"

By Spud Edmondson

Yakima's first boomer athletes ('46 & '47) grew up dreaming of playing at old Parker Field, a wooden/concrete edifice that burned down in '66. It was built by Shirley Parker (Daryl's father) in 1938 and was a youngster's delight with lots of character, smells and nooks and crannies that fueled our imagination.

Parker was home to the Bears ("A" league baseball), YVC football/baseball, Ike/Davis football, Legion baseball, junior high football championship and, most important to youngsters then, the annual YMCA pee-wee championships/all star games. Our first opportunity to play there came in the third grade ('56), but we imagined playing there from the time we watched games in the early '50s.

Parker Field, Yakima: Lennox Avenue and 12th. Western International League: Pippins 1937-41, Stars 1946-47, Packers 1948, Bears 1949-54. Northwest League: Bears 1955-66, 1990-92. Photo circa 1951, from Rain Check, Baseball in the Pacific Northwest by Mark Armour.

The last game we played there was August 1965, the Yakima Legion team winning the district playoff game to state. Over those nine years, numerous baseball games and a junior high football championship were held there, but high school football moved to Zaepfel Stadium in 1962.

Parker was rebuilt after the fire and was still the place to play baseball for Yakima's youth, fueling all the younger boomers' "High Hopes." PY&SF's connection remains strong, and we are very proud of the recent announcement changing the name to "Parker-Faller Field," honoring Bill Faller, who has been the foundation's guiding light since helping resurrect us 11 years ago (special thanks to Daryl and YVCC president Linda Kaminski).

Fundraiser - Daryl Parker surprises the audience with the announcement of YVCC Board approving the name change of the Parker Field to the Parker/Faller Field.

High Hopes Golf Wrap

Next year, our 10th anniversary, we will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Yakima area classes of 1965, which have provided some of the most talented athletic teams in Yakima Valley history. Our golf event is scheduled for June 13, 2015, so circle your calendar.

My first thank you goes to our High Hopes golf Honorary Chairman Ollie Nelson and his family for allowing us to honor him this year. His early leadership of the Yakima YMCA taught many how to build a thriving and successful community while pioneering the early sports environment in Yakima. Second, I want to thank the High Hopes golf committee of Sam Karr, Virginia Hays, Jon Mulvenon, and Spud Edmondson for all their hard work without which the event would not be possible. A special thanks has to go to Bill Faller for coordinating past YVC baseball players into returning to support our efforts. Our High Hopes golf scramble was another success, largely due to the huge efforts of those who volunteer at the golf course behind the scenes to help make event possible. Special thanks to Kevin Anderson, head professional, and the entire staff of the Apple Tree Resort for their assistance in providing us a first-class golf resort in our own backyard.

On behalf of the High Hopes golf committee we want to thank all those who supported our fundraising weekend and High Hopes golf event. Without the funds the public provides through our two main events, the Sports Legends Reunion and High Hopes golf tournament, our grants and core mission would not be possible. There are a lot of youth sports dreams and experiences coming true because of the support we receive.

We are always open to your ideas, contacts and future expertise in creating a better product. If you have an idea to share, want to help us run an existing event or have an idea for a new fall event, please contact us. We need quality people to help us produce quality events. Please place our events on your 2015 calendar and plan on joining us next June 12 and 13th.
